SCHOOLMA'AMS AND POLITICS

Long Island Teachers Reduced in Position and Compensation.

Their Loyalty to Ex-Mayor Gleason Cited as the Cause.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., July 13.—There is considerable comment in this city in school circles over the refusal of the Board of Education to reappoint Miss Kate H. McWilliams as principal of the Second Ward Primary School. Miss McWilliams was principal of a school in this city from 1882 to 1889. She is a sister of ex-School Commissioner James McWilliams, who held office under ex-Mayor Gleason.

Miss McWilliams was formerly principal of the Grammar School of the Second Ward, and it is alleged that, without reason, she was removed as principal of the Grammar School and placed in the primary school, and at the same time her salary was reduced from $2,000 to $1,500 per year.

Commissioner Kennedy says Miss McWilliams is incompetent. This is denied by Miss McWilliams' friends, who say she has a State school license to teach, and also a Principal's license from Long Island City. They say that the reason she was not reappointed was because her brother was a Gleason man.

Another case where politics is alleged to have influenced the Board is that of Miss Monica Ryan. When Mayor Sanford was in office she was receiving a salary of $1,000 per year, which was cut to $800. On Wednesday night Miss Ryan's friends went before the Board and tried to get her salary raised to $1,000. They were unsuccessful.

It is alleged that the reason Miss Ryan's salary was cut was because she was a warm friend of ex-Mayor Gleason.

SALVATION SOLDIERS HELD.

Capt. White and Eight Lads and Lassies Were Disorderly.

Edward White, of 200 Manhattan avenue, a Salvation Army captain, and eight of his lads and lassies were held in the Ewen Street Court, Williamsburg, to-day on a charge of disorderly conduct. Last evening this section of the Army was holding an open-air meeting at Norman and Manhattan avenues, and they made so much noise that Sergeant Knapp ordered them to disperse. They not only declined, but laughed at the Sergeant and refused to move. The Sergeant made no comments, but, going to a patrol box, sent in an alarm. A few minutes later the wagon rolled up and half a dozen stalwart officers helped the Salvationists to seats.

The soldiers were not cast down over their arrest, but sang songs all the way to the Greenpoint station-house. Ex-Alderman Fireghorn, the Democratic leader of the Seventeenth Ward, bailed out the entire party.

Baid at Coney Island.

Sergeant Kennedy and detectives of the Coney Island police last night raided a house at Ocean avenue and Kensington walk, alleged, by James Drummond, to be a disorderly resort. Two men and two women who were in the place were placed under arrest. Frank Chapman, twenty-five years old, and Martin Glick, the same age, were arrested as the alleged proprietors of the place.

STOLE SEVEN PIGEONS.

Four Small Brooklyn Boys Held in the Lee Avenue Court.

Four small boys were arraigned before Justice Murphy in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day and held for examination on a charge of pigeon stealing.

The youngsters were George Schuman, of 601 Flushing avenue, Samuel and Edward Howe, of 28 Guyanet street, and Edward Arnold, of 27 Hartland street, and their ages range from eight to eleven.

At 4 o'clock this morning the boys stole seven pigeons from a coop in the rear of 28 Guyanet street. The pigeons were the property of William Flook, a colored boy. Policeman Fier saw the youngsters and chased them into the house. The pigeons were found hidden away in a bureau drawer in the Howes boys' room.

Although quite young, the boys have been in trouble many times before, and the Howes boys, particularly, have caused the police a great deal of annoyance.

FRIEDLANDER IN A FIX.

Mrs. Zuber Says the Insurance Agent Tried to Assault Her.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., July 13.—H. Friedlander, who is connected with the John Hancock Insurance Company, of Broadway and Bedford avenues, Brooklyn, was a prisoner before Justice Murphy this morning on complaint of Mrs. Milne Zuber, of 41 Albert street.

Mrs. Zuber charges that Friedlander on March 28 went to her house and began to talk insurance to her. Friedlander was alone at the time, she alleges, he attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Zuber further alleges that Friedlander so frightened her that she gave premature birth to twins and had been unable to leave her bed until a short time ago to make a complaint against him.

Friedlander, who had ex-Judge Kavanaugh as his counsel, denied the charge and was held in $1,000 bail for an examination next Friday.

SAYS GAS IS TOO HIGH.

Business Dies Complaints of McKane's Corporation's Prices.

Mayor Scherren, of Brooklyn, received a letter to-day from John Deas, the proprietor of the Tammany Hotel at Coney Island, protesting against a corporation, in which John V. McKane is said to be interested, charging $2 a thousand cubic feet of gas.

The corporation is known as the Coney Island Gas Company, and during the McKane regime had a monopoly on the gas supply at Coney Island.

Mr. Deas says he cannot understand why this one company is allowed to charge $2 a thousand cubic feet, while all other companies in Brooklyn only charge 50 cents or $1 at the most.

Everyone in Coney Island, Mr. Deas says, whose place is not heated by electricity, is compelled to pay twice as much for gas as other Brooklynites.

Badly Bitten by a Dog.

Thomas Hadden, eleven years old, of 22 Van der Vliet avenue, Brooklyn, was said to be in a serious condition at the Hospital. He was bitten on the neck by a dog in the lot back which he received last night. The dog was owned by James Hagan, of 22 Vandewater avenue.

BOYCOTTERS FOUND GUILTY.

They Are Paroled Pending an Appeal to a Higher Court.

Their Lawyers Say the Jury Was Illegally Drawn.

Thomas Kibbutz, Martin Tobin, Andrew O'Connell and James McKenny, the four alleged boycotters, who were arrested May 27 at a charge of boycotting, were found guilty by a jury in the Adams Street Police Court this morning.

Justice Walsh suspended sentence until Thursday, in order to give their counsel time to prepare papers to be used in an appeal. Meanwhile the men are paroled in the custody of their lawyers.

The men are brewery employees. Some time ago trouble arose between the Bidwiler Brewing Company and its men and a boycott was declared.

On the trial of the four men, several powerful jurors were on May 17 a crowd of fifty men were gathered in front of the Adams Street Police Court. The sidewalk was impassable, and pedestrians were compelled to walk by the middle of the street.

Sergeant O'Connell ordered that some of the crowd be arrested and the four defendants taken into custody. When arraigned in court they demanded a trial by jury. A jury was summoned by the clerk. Counsel for the defendants asked the court to set aside the jury and to order a new one drawn.

The court refused to do so, and the trial proceeded. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the men were sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

BURGLARS GET FOOLED.

Papers They Stole from Mr. Watson Are Worthless to Them.

Sometime between midnight and early this morning unknown thieves entered the apartments of William Watson, on the third floor of 124 Myrtle avenue, and escaped with papers that are of no value to anyone but the owner.

Mr. Watson has the reputation of being a rich man, and the thieves evidently expected a big haul. The robbery was well planned. When they found the papers they probably believed they possessed a fortune in stocks and bonds.

The papers consisted of a deed of a plot in the Lutheran Cemetery and an insurance policy. Examination of the deed showed that it was a forgery. The insurance policy was also a forgery. The thieves had been fooled.

BICYCLE THIEVES AT WORK.

Numerous Robberies Reported Recently in Long Island Towns.

Bicycle thieves have been troublesome on Long Island of late and a number of robberies have been reported. Last night the rank visited Pearlsails and broke into the barn of George R. Moon, stole three wheels, one a Keating, 1902 model, belonging to Mr. Moon, and two Western Wheel Works cycles, a gentleman's and a lady's wheel, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. John Whitaker, guests of Mr. Moon.

The robbery was reported to the police of Jamaica and Brooklyn and also in this city. The stolen wheels were valued at $300.

Lump Usset Natural Result.

At 3 o'clock this morning a man named Joseph J. Martin, street, Brooklyn, entered the house of 22 Vandewater avenue, and stole a large sum of money. The man was arrested by the police and is now in the House of Correction.

HE'S WANTED IN JERSEY.

Alleged Embezzler Pilkington Arrested in Brooklyn.

Frank Pilkington, alias Frank Edwards, was arraigned in the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, on a criminal charge of embezzlement. He was arrested last night by Detective Gray and taken to the court in the custody of Albany police and Herkimer street.

On the trial of the four men, several powerful jurors were on May 17 a crowd of fifty men were gathered in front of the Adams Street Police Court. The sidewalk was impassable, and pedestrians were compelled to walk by the middle of the street.

Sergeant O'Connell ordered that some of the crowd be arrested and the four defendants taken into custody. When arraigned in court they demanded a trial by jury. A jury was summoned by the clerk. Counsel for the defendants asked the court to set aside the jury and to order a new one drawn.

HAD INDECENT PICTURES.

Saloon-Keeper Garrahrant Arrested in Brooklyn.

"Awfully Sorry, but I Can't Go With You," He Told the Detective.

Detective Bagnorelli, of District Attorney Midway's office in Brooklyn, this morning arrested Wiley S. Garrahrant, a well-to-do saloon-keeper, of 182 Broadway, on a charge of exhibiting indecent pictures.

Garrahrant was taken before Judge Moore in the Court of Sessions and bail fixed at $100.

NEW JERSEY.

MUST RESIGN BY THURSDAY.

Judge Hud-peth Scores Convicted Hudson County Justices.

Tells Them They Are Unfit to Hold Their Honorable Offices.

There were many officials and politicians in the Hudson County Courtroom, Jersey City, to-day when Henry Martinez, William E. Wilson, Winfield S. Weed and Peter Beck, all Justices of the Peace, of Hudson County, were arraigned on indictments accusing them of extortion. The defendants had either been convicted or pleaded non-vault to the indictments, which aggregated thirteen in number. All of the indictments grew out of the action of the Justices in unlawfully accepting fees for services rendered in criminal cases.

NO PERMIT FOR SOCIALISTS.

Police Refuse to Allow the Proposed Mass-Meeting Thursday.

Deputy Police Commissioner Harman, of Brooklyn, announced this morning that a permit would not be granted to the Socialists to hold their big outdoor mass-meeting in cooperation with the Kings County Labor Federation, at Knickerbocker avenue and Troutman street, next Thursday evening.

The Socialists say they will take legal steps to compel the authorities to allow them to meet in the open air.
